A FASHIONABLE WEDDING.

Two Prominent Young People Married Last Night.

One of the prettiest events which has occurred in the social world of this city for some time took place last night, when Miss Madeline Gertrude Harding became Mrs. Charles William Perkins. The ceremony affecting this change in name was performed by the bride's brother, Rev. John B. Harding, of Frankfort, Pa., who was assisted by Rev. W. A. Sawyer, of the Trinity Episcopal church. The interior of Trinity church, in which edifice the marriage took place, was tastefully decorated with palms and roses in profusion. The choir was present and assisted by the Mozart orchestra rendered several pretty and appropriate selections, which were greatly enjoyed by the large number of persons assembled to witness the affair.

The bridal party arrived shortly after 8 o'clock and proceeded up the aisle to the altar. Messrs. Lyman M. Smith, J. Thompson, Maxwell D. Lathrop, and Enmons L. Peck comprised the male portion of attendants and preceded the bridesmaids, Misses Grace L. Hathaway, Florence Harrison, Minnie Reynolds and Miss Bertha Hement, of Philadelphia. Miss Margaret, of Philadelphia, Miss Harding's maid, came next and was followed by the bride herself, who marched up the aisle in the arm of her father, H. W. Harding, of Philadelphia.

Upon the party reaching the chancel Dwight L. Gracing accompanied by the groom, came from the vestry room and the latter received the bride from her father. Then the marriage vow was solemnized and the party left the church. The bride was attired in a white gown of duchesse satin, trimmed with Belle lace, her hair was well, and carried a prayer book in her hands. Her maids were also attired in white dresses, trimmed with ribbons of various colors.

A reception was given the friends of the couple at the Broomfield home on Terrace street, which had been decorated with cut flowers for the occasion. On the 10.50 train the bride and groom left for an extensive wedding tour, which will include Boston, Chicago, Detroit and Cleveland, Ohio. They will reside at the bride's home when they return.

KELLY-BURKE NUPTIALS.

Miss Anna Burke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Burke, was united in marriage to Dr. John A. Kelly yesterday morning in St. Rose's church. The ceremony took place at 9.45 o'clock, Rev. J. J. Griffin officiating. The church was crowded with friends of the couple, who desired to witness the happy nuptials. A reception was given at the home of the bride on North Main street, to the immediate friends of the contracting parties. The couple left on the 11.55 train for an extended wedding tour, which will include all the large cities of the south. They received numerous valuable and ornamental gifts from their friends, who extend their most hearty congratulations.

FUNERAL HELD YESTERDAY.

The funeral of the late Joseph Wesley left the home on Fallbrook street yesterday morning at 7.30 o'clock and proceeded to St. Rose's church, where a high mass of requiem was solemnized. Rev. W. A. Nealon officiated. The cortege was an exceedingly large one, the members of the Knights of Father Mathew, Ancient Order of Hibernians, and Independent Order of Heptasophs attending in a body. The pall-bearers were John Brown, James Martin, James Pridgen, Michael Surdial, James Surdial, Michael McCann, John Owens, Patrick Duffy and T. F. Collins. The floral offerings were many and beautiful. A large number of out of town people attended the funeral. Interment was made in St. Rose's cemetery.

IS IT A TRIFLE?

THAT COMMON TROUBLE, ACID DYSPEPSIA OR SOUR STOMACH.

Now Recognized as a Cause of Serious Disease.

Acid dyspepsia, commonly called heartburn or sour stomach, is a form of indigestion resulting from fermentation of the food. The stomach being too weak to promptly digest it, the food remains in it, fermenting, and the acids, filling the stomach with a gas and a bitter, sour, burning taste in the mouth is often present. This condition soon becomes chronic and an every day occurrence and is given but little attention. Because dyspepsia is immediately relieved by many people do nothing for the trouble.

Within a recent period a remedy has been discovered, prepared solely to cure dyspepsia and stomach troubles. It is known as Sturt's Dyspepsia Tablets, and is now becoming rapidly used and prescribed as a radical cure for every form of dyspepsia.

TAYLOR NEWS.

Coming Festival and Fair—This Evening's Smoker—Personal and Other Notes.

The coming fair of the Welsh Congregational church, which is to be held in Weber's rank next month, promises to be a grand success. The committees on different arrangements met last evening in the church auditorium and made very encouraging reports. A large number of donations have been received which consist of some very beautiful articles, which will be changed off during the progress of the fair. The fair will last for three nights; on each of those evenings a door prize will be given to the lucky holder of the admission ticket. A grand supper will also be served during the evenings. Ice cream will be extra.

This evening will occur the smoker and banquet of the Passaville Lodge No. 42, Knights of Pythias. The event will be held in Reese's hall. The members have succeeded in getting together an excellent programme, which will be rendered in connection with the smoker. The affair will commence at 8 o'clock. The music will be furnished by the Passaville organization which will be present.

PECKVILLE.

A large percentage of the enterprising citizens of Blakely borough were present at the meeting called Monday evening at the Blakely Fire company's hall for the purpose of organizing a board of trade. The following officers were chosen: President, E. L. Craig; secretary, E. N. Swincale; treasurer, E. F. Hoyt; board of directors, James W. Smith, Philatus Sneed, George M. Hall, E. S. Jones, H. H. Johnson, John E. Williams. Addresses were made by W. F. Mott, J. D. Peck, E. J. Barthold, L. F. Hoyt, K. B. Newton, and James W. Smith. Mr. W. F. Mott stated that he would donate to any concern for the lighting of Monday night a tract of land providing they employ a certain number of hands. He would also advertise the project thoroughly in the New York papers the coming winter free of charge. The borough will soon be situated so that they can offer the lighting of Monday night free to any manufacturing plant that may see fit to locate here. Blakely is well supplied with railroad facilities, the Delaware and Hudson canal company, Ontario and Western railway and Delaware, Lackawanna and Western are easily reached. The abundance of coal and an inexhaustible water supply coupled with many other first class inducements should bring to the confines of Blakely borough manufacturing plants of all classes.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Beatty and William Bell are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Kilhour, of Philadelphia. Miss Elizabeth Oakley, of Glenburn, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Broad. Miss Lora Fleet is ill of diphtheria. Dr. J. W. Fleet and William Vandenberg are in the city for a few days on their way to the West.

Three Doctors in Consultation.

From Benjamin Franklin. "When you are sick, what you like best is to be chosen for a medicine in the first place, what experience tells you is best, to be chosen in the second place; what reason (i. e., Theory) says is best to be chosen in the last place. But if you can get Dr. Inclination, Dr. Experience and Dr. Reason to hold a consultation together, they will give you the best advice that can be taken."

JERMYN AND MAYFIELD.
